SOCIETY

WHILE fashionable weddings have engaged the attention of the older society set here for the past week, the younger girls, including a great many of the debutantes, have been enjoying themselves at the different college dances and functions given at the various institutions in the State. The Germans at the University of Virginia are always the most brilliant affairs given during the year, and the most attractive girls in Virginia go to Charlottesville to attend them.

The opening German of the week was given by the German Club Monday night in the gymnasium, with sixty couples dancing, and was led by Milton Elliott. The Sultan's cotillion of the Eli Banana Ribbon Society on Tuesday evening was a perfect artistic triumph so far as beauty of decoration and novelty of favors were concerned. A big Oriental parasol was suspended from the centre of the hall-room ceiling, and festoons of many-colored lanterns were hung from the parasol to the sides of the gallery. Milton Elliott led the German and favors were distributed by Mrs. Nichols and Professor Dabney. The Eli figure, which is always the most interesting feature of the German, was danced in costume and ended with the salutation of the junior members of the society.

Some of the Richmond girls, who spent Easter week at the University of Virginia were Misses Isabella Carter, Mary Chalmers, Mary Traylor and Grace Jones, Richard Carrington, Dave Grant and James H. Drake, Jr., were also present at the dances last week.

The Easter hops given at the Virginia Military Institute, which of late years vie with those of final week, this year were attended by an unusually attractive lot of pretty girls last week. The gymnasium of the institution, where the dances were given, was decorated for the occasion in quantities of palms, bunting, flags and apple blossoms.

Some of those dancing were Misses J. Nelson, of Richmond; Annim, of Texas; C. Thompson, of Stuart Hall; C. Miller, of Winchester; M. Massie, of Lynchburg; Key, of Stuart Hall; Pipes of New Orleans; Hill, of Winston-Salem; S. C. M. Waddell, of Richmond; Carrie Waddell, of Richmond; Dallas Lee, of Richmond; M. Johnson, of Richmond; L. Bowman, of Mt. Vernon; N. Y. M. Smith, of Washington; Clemmer, of Middlebrook, Va.; Tutwiler, of Western Va.; M. Davidson, of Lexington, Va.; Le Grange, of Richmond; J. Fleming, of Richmond; J. Allen, of Staunton; Wilson, of Lynchburg; Reed, of Norfolk; Emily Montague, of Richmond; Ross, of Norfolk; A. Charlton, of Roanoke; Tutwiler, of Lynchburg; Cross, of Lexington; Kelly, of Norfolk; Davidson, of Washington; Quinby, of Norfolk; Jane Walters, of Staunton; McClure, of Staunton; Matson, of Kentucky; White, of Shawville, Va.; Crawford, of Lexington, Va.; Speck, of Staunton; Lois Richardson, of Richmond; Robertson, of Lexington, Va.; Branham, of Baltimore; Misch, of Middlebrook, Va.; Thach, of Sweetbriar College; B. Marable, of Norfolk; T. Williams, of Richmond; Elizabeth Wing, of Richmond; E. Allen, of Richmond; Elizabeth Cooke, of Richmond; Marston, of Virginia; Cadeau, of Templeton, Edwards, of Biedler, Nalle, Davant, Wirt, Richardson, Camp Waddell, Blackmore, Smith McWhorter, Rheumund, Lee, Anderson, Reardon Carter, Moore, Spear, Jackson, Dashiell, Johnson, Bowles, McCready, Kraft, Hundley, Owen, Fanno, Gayle, Smith, Eastham, Gerow, Collins, Eng, Ish, Kinsolving, Jackson, Jordan, Malsberger, West, Dalton, Welsh, Carter, Lloyd, Coulbourn, Johnson and Sinclair.

The chaperons were Miss Lizzie Graham, Mrs. Mallory, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. H. Pendleton, Mrs. M. Pendleton, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Watts, Mrs. Corke, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Patton, Mrs. Kerlin, Mrs. White, Mrs. Gilmore, Mrs. Gleaves, Mrs. Mead and Miss White.

The festivities of Easter week at Washington and Lee University began with the Junior Prom given at the skating rink, which was draped for the event in the class colors. The president of the class Mr. Brown, led dancing, with Miss Carey Brooke, of Roanoke. A number of out-of-town guests were present.

At Old Point.

Quite an attractive party of young people is spending the week-end at the Hotel Chamberlin at Old Point Comfort. The party, which is chaperoned by Mrs. Philip Edward Johnson, includes Misses Mary Scarborough, Elaine Parrish, Jellie Scott, Virginia Tyler, George Hodgson, William Grigg, Albert Tanner, Edward Haynes and Childrey Scott. They attended the hop at the Chamberlin Hotel last night, and will return to Richmond some time today.

Return to Sweetbriar.

Misses Verkes and Sullivan, who have been the house guests of Miss Harriet Buchanan here for the Easter holidays, will leave to-morrow with Mrs. Buchanan for Sweetbriar College. Several attractive affairs have been given for Miss Buchanan and her guests, among which was a bridge whist party given by Miss Buchanan at her home on West Avenue last week.

At German.

The Pi Mu German to be given at the Masonic Temple on the evening of Friday, April 28, will be one of the biggest balls given during the past season, and will be a very representative affair. Colonel Jo Lane Stern will lead the German, and the list of patrons will include a number of prominent society women. Some of the alumni in Richmond who will attend are Drs. A. L. Gray, St. George Grinnan, E. L. Hobson, Jr., H. Norton Mason, Stuart McGuire, Harry S. Baker, Karl S. Blackwell, H. G. Brown, P. W. Howie, E. Guy Hopkins, M. D. Hoge, Stuart Michaux, Jacob Michaux, E. J. Mosley, J. G. Nelson, W. L. Peple, A. P. Upshur, J. A. White, H. W. Bassett, Greer Baughman, J. C. Bell, C. A. Blanton, Robert Boshier, Jr., J. P. Bright, William H. Craig, N. Thomas Ennett, C. H. Fowkes, I. T. Gorsline, W. T. Harris, G. T. Hundley, W. B. Lorraine, Herbert Mann, A. A. Marshall, W. A. Mcowan, C. W. Mercer, L. T. Price, P. M. Reade, J. P. Rex, M. P. Rucker, W. A. Shepherd, B. R. Tucker, F. W. Upshur, L. B. Wiggs, A. Murat Phillis and McGuire Newton.

At the Woman's Club.

Miss Helen Varick Boswell, who is to tell the members of the Woman's Club of "Everyday Life in the Canal Zone," comes of Revolutionary ancestors, and is prominent in D. A. R. work. She is president of the Woman's Forum of New York City, and is well known in social and social life of Washington, as well as social and club life of New York.

The last meeting of the Literary Round Table for this season will be held on Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, with Mrs. John Hart as chairman. "The Unknown God," by R. L.

Putnam Neale, is the book to be discussed.

Meet at Mrs. Smith's.

Dr. MacLachlan will address the Every Monday Club to-morrow afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock. His talk will be on Scotland, and a very attractive feature of the afternoon will be a number of Scotch ballads by Mrs. Robert Whittier, Jr., and Mrs. W. B. Thomas. The meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. William H. Smith, 1822 West Grace Street, Mrs. Smith being hostess of the club on this occasion. Each member is privileged to bring a friend, as the meeting is an open one.

Visiting Mrs. Hess.

Mrs. Thomas H. Russell, of Keswick, Va., is spending this week as the guest of Mrs. Otto Theodore Hess, at her home on Grove Avenue. Mrs. Russell was formerly Miss Grace Shields of this city, before her marriage some years ago, and has a number of friends in Richmond.

Handsome Luncheon.

Mrs. Isaac Davenport gave a very handsome luncheon, at 2 o'clock Thursday, at the Country Club, in honor of Miss Allen and Miss Hargrave. Miss Allen, with her mother, Mrs. Gideon Allen, of New Bedford, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. Davenport for a few days. The guests were seated at small tables in the palm room and main dining room, which were decorated in Killarney roses.

Those present included Mrs. C. U. Williams, Jr., Miss Della Tompkins, Miss Nellie Tompkins, Mrs. Henry Baskerville, Miss Mamie Davenport, Miss Elizabeth Cooke, Miss Julia Joyner, Miss Margaret Stringfellow, Miss Maud Stringfellow, Miss Beattie Watkins, Miss Gabriella Page, Miss Mae Lindsey, Miss Nan Lindsey, Miss Della Davenport, Miss Martha Robinson, Miss Sophie Meredith, Miss Alice Stokes, Miss May Jones, Mrs. Charles Davenport, Mrs. Gideon Davenport, Miss Sophie Pitt, of Baltimore; Miss Kitty Hardy, of Norfolk; and Miss Annie Rutherford, of Baltimore.

Returned From the South.

Miss Eugenie Seiden Taylor has returned to Richmond, after spending some time visiting relatives in the South. Miss Taylor spent some time in Charleston, S. C., going later to Atlanta, where she was the guest of her sister. Miss Taylor expects to leave some time next month to spend the summer months traveling in Europe. She will go with Miss Sally Deane's party.

Miss Scarborough's Guests.

Miss Margaret Brooke, of Washington, came to Richmond Thursday and was among the out-of-town guests dancing at the Easter German given by the Tuesday German Club on Friday evening in the Masonic Temple. Brooke is the guest of Miss Mary Scarborough, 2023 Monument Avenue.

Miss Helene Fuller, who has been in Richmond to act as bridesmaid at the Speed-Branch wedding, which took place on Wednesday, has left for her home in Rochester, N. Y., after visiting Miss Mary Scarborough for several days. Miss Fuller stopped at Princeton University to attend the ball game at that college yesterday afternoon.

Miss Massey Complimented.

Says an Atlanta exchange: "Miss Lucile Meredith Massey is being extensively entertained in Atlanta, where she is the guest of Miss Jane Stanfield. Her hostess entertained in her honor at a beautifully appointed luncheon Friday. Mrs. John W. Moore was another hostess of Friday last in compliment to Miss Stanfield and Miss Massey, and also Misses Elizabeth Cozart, of Augusta, and Katherine Overman, of North Carolina, who are house guests of Miss Mary Traylor. Miss Stanfield and Miss Massey attended the senior banquets at Oxford Monday evening." (Continued on Fourth Page.)
